VOL. I NO. 77 Published Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday by Headquarters, Saipan

HOLIDAY HOLIDAYS

As is typical during the holiday season, personnel take time out to "get away from it all." To prove this, we did a little snooping around and found out who have left or expected to leave and are not going to be here during the holidays. Here are the accounts:

First of all, Deputy High Commissioner Jose Benitez and Assistant Political Affairs Officer Raymond Ulo-chong are both on official business.

Mr. George Taggart and Mr. Scott Schreiner have both left for home leave in the Mainland. Mrs. Penny Akimoto is already in Hawaii on vacation. Nick Bossy is on home leave at home here in Saipan, and the Abalos family departed Saipan for Guam last Saturday.

Miss Virginia Breaks will leave on this Thursday's flight to Guam, and expected to depart this coming Saturday on board the DC-4 to Guam are the Robinson family, Mrs. Robert K. Shoecraft, Mrs. Albert McKinny, Misses Maria Maanao, Teri Santos and Frances Cruz.

TEENAGE CHRISTMAS PROM

As a special treat to the teenagers, the Marianas Community Club is sponsoring a Teenage Christmas Prom this coming Thursday, December 20th, from 7:30 to 11:00 p.m. at Club Toppa Tappi. All children of Club members are cordially invited. There will be live-music for dancing, Christmas carolling and games. Don't miss it!!

INTRODUCTION

Mrs. Donna Cook, wife of Transportation Officer James Cook, reported to work as secretary under Administrative Services Division on the 10th of December. She is currently assigned to the Legal Department. We wish to apologize for not having featured Donna on our "New Employees" section, nevertheless, we certainly do not want to fail to welcome her into the Headquarters Family.

ELECTION RESULTS

Latest information received, prior to going to press, revealed that Mr. Vicente D. Sablan, better known as Ben Kilili, received the highest number of votes, and soon be inaugurated as Mayor of Saipan. Further details will be published as soon as they become available.
